The 1996 Men's Championship

Brett Partridge, a day laborer from Tasmania, opened with rounds of 65-67 and sparked Australia's runaway victory in the 20th World Amateur Team Championship. It was the nation's third triumph in the event and its first since 1966.

Partridge, 25, whose beefy stature and callused hands hint at his work in a lumber mill, led Australia to the fourth-lowest total in championship history. The team's 26-under-par 838 at Manila Southwoods Golf and Country Club pushed Australia 11 strokes ahead of 1990 champion Sweden.

David Gleeson, 18, who won the Australian Amateur earlier in the year, began with a steady 68-69 and Jarrod Moseley went 70-70-71 as the team built a nearly insurmountable eight-shot lead entering the final day. That's when Jamie Crow, 34, the son of the former Australian Amateur champion, now living in Las Vegas, Nev., provided a clinching 72 after not counting toward the team total in the first 54 holes.

The Masters and Legends courses at Manila Southwoods yielded record scoring during four days of hot, humid temperatures and blistering sunshine. The record for most sub-par individu-

Daniel Olsson of runner-up Sweden led that charge with an 8-under 64, beginning his round from the 10th tee of the Legends Course with six consecutive birdies. He missed a six-footer at the 16th, but turned in 29, itself another first. His 64 broke by two shots a record established by Jack Nicklaus at Merion in 1960. In an ironic twist, Nicklaus designed both Southwoods layouts, and made an appearance at the club during the third round.

Spain (851) earned the bronze medal, rallying from a tie for eighth at the midpoint. Canada, which dropped from a tie for second to seventh in Saturday's third round, captured fourth (855) on the strength of the last day's lowest round among the contenders. The host team, which earned the bronze medal in 1984 in Hong Kong, made a strong run at its best-ever placing but slipped the last day to a tie for fifth at 859 with Finland, Great Britain and Ireland and New Zealand.

The United States (861) placed ninth, only the third time it had finished outside the top two. The team originally included Eldrick (Tiger) Woods, the three-time U.S. Amateur champion,

The 1996 Women's Championship

Korea became the first Asian team to win the women's title as Han Hee-Won's emphatic 8-iron approach to the final green stopped a foot from the hole and guaranteed a birdie and two-stroke cushion over Italy.

Han, Kang Soo-Yun and Kim Kyung-Sook produced a 438 total at waterlogged St. Elena Golf Club in the outskirts of Manila, Philippines, fending off the Italian challenge in a last-day showdown that developed between the two teams.

Monsoon rains and lightning midway through the morning wave of the first round forced tournament officials to shorten the 17th Women's World Amateur to 54 holes, the first time in either the women's or men's contests that a round was lost. Faced with a saturated course at the end of the rainy season, tournament officials were forced to permit players to lift, clean and place their golf balls in the fairway during all three rounds.

The United States led at 1-under-par 143 when the first round finally was completed Friday morning, by a shot over Colombia and by three over Spain. But Korea, enjoying a 68 by Han that was 11 shots better than her opening round, stormed to a 139 and took a four-shot lead over Italy. Han's 68 tied the second-round record established by Annika Sorenstam of Sweden in 1992 and matched two years later by Wendy Ward of the U.S. and Karrie Webb of Australia.

The last round became a challenge as dark clouds and intermittent showers in the morning gave way to winds gusting to 30 mph. Han responded with a 74, capped by her 18th-green birdie in the day's last group. The U.S. earned third (444), climbing from fifth place at the start of the final round, while Spain and Great Britain and Ireland (445) shared fourth.

The victory capped a remarkable run for Korea, which did not send a squad to the event until 1990. It arrived with a flourish, as it tied for sixth, then placed ninth and in 1994 came within a surprising four shots of tying the victorious U.S. team.

Philippine President Fidel V. Ramos, who attended both the flag-raising and flag-lowering ceremonies, was an occasional spectator at both the women's and men's championships.

(b) Income from dues shall be used to defray all Council expenses. If expenses in a given year result in a deficit to the Council's account, which shall be maintained in the Administrative Office, the deficit

Expenses of the Council shall be limited to the following:

- (1) Cost of Administration including staff, office rent, stationery, postage, printing and other communications incurred by the Administrative Office.

Section 2. Place

(a) The Championship shall be rotated among the

The Administrative Office shall inform all Member Organizations of such invitations at least one month in advance of the Meeting.

(Note: Invitations may be submitted by any Member Organization in any zone. Although invitations from the appropriate zone will, of course, be given first consideration, it is important that invitations from other zones, particularly the zone next in order, should be available in case no invitation acceptable to the Council has been received from the appropriate zone. If no suitable venue is available in the appropriate zone, invitation from other zones shall be submitted at least three months in advance of the Biennial Meeting.)

At the time of submitting its invitation the Member Organization shall represent that, subject to any restrictions imposed upon it by the Government of its country, it will allow all other Member Organizations to compete if its invitation is accepted. It shall also present with its invitations a statement from a properly authorized official of the Government of its country that all Member Organizations, other than those (if any) named in the statement, will be allowed to visit the country and to compete in the Championship without any restriction whatsoever.

At a time not more than eight months and not less than seven months from the first of the month in which the Championship is to take place, both the Member Organization and a properly authorized official of the Government of its country shall reiterate the statement made in the paragraph above.

Championship invitations shall not be issued and pertinent advertising/promotion shall not be engaged in more than 3½ years in advance.

(c) The location of each Championship shall normally be determined by the Council at its Biennial Meeting immediately preceding. In reaching its decision the Council shall have regard to:

- (ii) The desirability of distributing the location of the Championship fairly among the Member Organizations in each zone; and
- (iii) The degree (if any) to which an invitation to entertain the Championship has been restricted by the Government of the country concerned.

If no invitation acceptable to the Council has been received from within the appropriate zone, the Council may consider and accept any invitation which may have been received from within the zone next in order of rotation.

However, if the Council at its Biennial Meeting is unable, due to a lack of acceptable invitations or for any other reason, finally to decide the location of the next Championship, the Administrative Committee shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure the continuance of the Championship.

(d) The Championship Committee shall be authorized to schedule in advance a round of less than 18 holes, i.e., the Committee shall be authorized to declare before play begins on any day that the stipulated round for that day shall be, for example, nine holes; the Committee shall not be authorized to declare during play of a round that the stipulated round for that day shall be, for example, nine holes if the stipulated round when play began was to be 18 holes.
